The best grades of pulp paper made in this country are said to be made from the poplar wood of North Carolina and Virginia.

The color line is on near Washington, Ind., where white and colored miners are showing attention to each other with shooting irons.

Prof. Totten now insists that the world will go out of business next March. No one would enjoy the smash up more than Totten, for then he could say "I told you so."

It is said that Lillian Russell having got rid of the man who was afraid of poker is going to annex a rich copper man. This will be a combination of copper and brass, a pretty tough amalgam.

A New England paper says that if Cuba becomes an independent government it will be the only independent island country in the world. That journal evidently considers Japan too big to be called an island.

One Buffalo, N. Y., woman sued another for $10,000 damages for saying that she padded her figure. But the jury thought $10,000 too big a figure, and gave her $45 which they thought enough to cover the padding.

Agoncillo, the Philippine envoy to Washington, has not been studying English long but is making progress. He told Senator Chandler that Chicago was a d— big town, and that Washington was a d— fine town. This was drawing it fine on Washington.

A Washington dispatch says President McKinley and the Republican leaders in Washington are facing the Congressional elections with much anxiety, and are fearful that they may lose the next Congress as a result of popular dissatisfaction with the Washington war management.

Rocky Mount Butler spoke to about four hundred people at Lumberton Monday. Of these, two hundred were Populists, including many who will vote the white man's ticket. Butler cannot attract the people as he once did. His speeches now are said to be characterized by low and villainous abuse of Democrats. He is doing what he can to aid the negro party, but it will go for naught. The negro party in North Carolina is doomed.

Judge Van Wyck's party fealty was put to the test when he accepted a nomination for Governor, which will pay him only $20,000, and resigned a judgeship, which he was sure of for fourteen years, at a salary of $13,000 a year, or $182,000. No discounting that kind of fealty.

Guinea-pigs is what the Londoners call the Peers who were on promoter Hooley's pay roll, for floating air bubble schemes. Judging from the big pay some of them got they must be guinea hogs.

According to a Tennessee editor, the "trust vampires" they have in that State "stand with uplifted clubs over the heads of the working masses." These vampires are no suckers.

Views in and Around Santiago.

Mr. J. Hardy LeGwin showed a STAR reporter yesterday a collection of very fine kodak pictures taken in and around Santiago. They are as follows: Block house from the inside, showing holes through which the guns were fired; block house with top torn away; cathedral built in 1515; Merrimac partly submerged; large cactus with soldier under the branches; block house; Morro Castle. It is, indeed, interesting to look over these views, taken as they were right in the vicinity of the city where one of the greatest victories of the war was won.

Soldiers from Raleigh.

Sergeant Major Thos. W. Davis, of the Second regiment, N. C. V.; Sergeant W. A. Whitney and Corporal Champ McD. Davis, of Company K, arrived yesterday to remain until October 15th. AT BURGAW FRIDAY.

Preparations to Make the Day the Biggest in the History of the Town.

The Democratic rally at Burgaw to-morrow promises to be a big success. There will be big crowds of people from all adjoining sections, including many from Wilmington. The railroad schedule is all that could be asked and the people of Burgaw will be found thoroughly hospitable.

One of the best features will be the music by the Second Regiment Band. All the preliminaries have been arranged and President Monroe said yesterday the band would be sure to go in full force.

There will be a good list of Democratic campaigners who will address the people on the political issues. There will be an abundance of good things to eat and as many as go will be royally entertained. Dr. E. Porter, chairman, and Bruce Williams, secretary, of the Pender county Democratic Executive Committee, and their assistants, have been hard at work and they assure the STAR that Friday's political rally will never have been surpassed.

Mr. Reuben Corbett, a veteran from Rocky Point, came to Wilmington yesterday for the special purpose of inviting all veterans from New Hanover to go to Burgaw to-morrow and take part in the festivities of the occasion.

Commander George W. Huggins desires all members that can possibly do so, to attend and wear their uniforms. Considerable preparations were made yesterday towards this end and it is expected a large crowd will attend.

SEPTEMBER HOSPITAL REPORT.

Very Creditable for the Management of That Institution.

The report of Dr. Zachary, as physician in charge of the City Hospital, made yesterday to the Hospital Board, makes a very creditable showing for the September management of that institution.

During the month nine pay patients were treated, and $132.25 was collected from the department. A small per cent. of the amount was on old accounts.

There were forty-one charity patients treated, and 3,345 meals were served at an average cost of 4½ cents each, or 13½ cents per day.

There were four patients discharged from the pay wards and twenty-nine from the charity wards during the month. In the latter department nineteen of the patients were white and twenty-two negroes.

The Board audited the usual routine of bills against the hospital.

Has Come to Wilmington to Live.

Capt. Haywood Clark, one of the genial conductors on the Atlantic Coast Line, will hereafter reside in Wilmington. Mrs. Clark came down Sunday and the other members of the family came on yesterday afternoon. They will reside at the corner of Sixth and Market streets, in the house formerly occupied by Mr. Frank McNeill. Capt. Clark has been living in Portsmouth. He and his family are cordially welcomed to Wilmington.

LOCAL DOTS.

— Don't fail to register next Saturday.

— Old registrations don't count this time. This is a new deal.

— If you wish to vote, see that you are registered in the precinct in which you now reside.

— The Confederate Veterans of Pender county will attend the grand rally at Burgaw to-morrow.

— Two marriage licenses were issued by the Register of Deeds yesterday, one white and one colored.

— The Palace Bakery has a new advertisement in this morning's paper which will interest buyers of fruit.

— The regular, bona fide mail circulation of THE MORNING STAR is larger than the mail circulation of all other Wilmington Dailies combined.

— Mr. Edgar G. Polley, Inspector of Customs for this port, is right sick at his home on Market street. He has been unable to be at his office for a couple of days.

— If you don't register you cannot vote, and if you cannot vote you will be ashamed of yourself when election day comes. The registration in New Hanover is a new one.

— Mr. Walter J. King, advance agent of the Cleveland Wilson Minstrel troupe, spent last night in the city. This popular organization will be here on the night of the 12th inst.

— In a precinct in Robeson county in which 55 Populists voted in 1896, 49 of them have announced their intention of voting with the White Man's party in the coming election.

— Lumberton Robesonian: The fusionists have, we learn, named G. M. D. Howard, of this county, and J. B. Schulken, of Columbus, as their candidates for the Senate in this district.

— J. Wiley Shook, of Asheville, was in Lumberton Monday. It is hinted that he carried a corruption fund for Edmund and the other leaders of the negro party in Robeson county.

— In one of the voting precincts of Pender county there were seventeen Populists at the last election. Of these, fourteen have come over to the Democratic party, and two are on the "mourner's bench."

— There were no cases of importance before the Justices of the city yesterday. Hines, the negro desperado, whose misdeeds were spoken of in yesterday's STAR, will have a hearing before Justice McGowan to day.

— Salisbury Sun: "The Wilmington STAR, one of our most valued exchanges, and withal one of the best daily papers in the State, celebrated its thirty-first birthday this week. May the MORNING STAR shine always."

— Come to think about it, the nomination for Clerk of the Superior Court might keep the Hon. Confucius Philopena Lockey from raising hades over the "deep damnation of his taking off" the Judicial ticket. How's that, Judge?

— The Clyde steamer Croatan arrived yesterday with a cargo of merchandise from New York. On the route here an eagle was captured alive by members of the crew and was on exhibition at the company's dock yesterday afternoon.

— Hon. F. A. Woodard, who is now speaking in this Congressional district, is making a splendid canvass. The STAR learns from Democrats who have heard him that his speeches are among the very best that have been delivered during the campaign.

— Remember that the remaining days for registration are Saturday, Oct. 8th, Saturday, Oct. 15th, and Saturday, Oct. 22nd, and that the hours are from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. Remember, too, that this is a brand-new registration for New Hanover county.

— Mr. P. Heinsberger has on exhibition at the office at the Merchant's Association, a specimen head of very fine rice, which was raised on Acorn Branch near the city by Mr. Wm. E. Worth. It was planted June 15th and harvested the last of September.

— A travelling man told a STAR reporter yesterday how the proprietor of the Hotel Richmond, Rockingham, is running his place by the use of white labor exclusively. He has a white bus driver, white porters, and white cooks. He is highly pleased with the change so far.

— Some little excitement was caused last night by a runaway on market street. The horse of Du Brutz Cutlar, Esq., hitched to a buggy and driven by a negro boy, became frightened at something and dashed off up the street. No serious damage resulted.

— The White Government Union of the Second Ward meets to-night at Democratic Headquarters. There is important business for the consideration of the union and every Democrat of the ward is most earnestly requested to be present, as there is work for each one to do.

— Spirits turpentine took an upward tendency yesterday, being quoted at 29½—29 with the market firm. The receipts of all naval stores were considerably larger yesterday than for any previous day in some time. The tone of the cotton market yesterday changed from firm to very firm

— A young man who reaches the age of twenty-one after the close of registration, and on or before the 8th of November, can register and vote on the day of election. Or, if any elector has been a resident of the State twelve months and of his county ninety days immediately preceding the day of election, he can register and vote on that day.

WARD MEETINGS LAST NIGHT.

White Government Unions Meet and Transact Live Campaign Business.

The Third and Fourth divisions of the Fifth Ward White Government Union held a rousing meeting at their hall, corner Eighth and Castle streets, last night. This Union is probably the most zealous in the city, and some good work is being done for white supremacy.

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mr. G. W. Millis, with Mr. J. M. McGowan as secretary. A committee was appointed to see the County Executive Committee with the view of inviting Hon. B. R. Tillman, of South Carolina, to make a speech in Wilmington in the near future. Another committee was also appointed to extend an invitation to Dr. N. M. Culbreth to speak from the stand at the intersection of Seventh and Castle streets next Wednesday night. This committee was also instructed to invite the other Unions of the city to meet at Democratic headquarters, form a procession headed by the Wilmington Cornet Band, and attend the speaking in a body.

The Union of the Second division of the Fourth ward also held a very interesting session last night at headquarters in the old National Bank building. Some very important resolutions were adopted and other business of a general character was discussed. The flag committee of this Union made their report, which was adopted.

The Union of the Upper division of the Third ward also held a meeting at headquarters, which was of an informal nature, but was nevertheless productive of good results.

Meetings of the Unions of the Lower division of the Third ward and of the Second ward are to be held at their respective meeting places to-night, and it is hoped that there will be a full attendance.

THE CHRYSANTHEMUM SHOW.

Prospects Bright for a Fine Display Early in November.

Many Wilmingtonians are already discussing the Chrysanthemum Show, an annual event which has come to be one of the most notable of the many pleasant and successful occurrences the city affords. There is every indication now that this year's show will be held some time during the first week in November. Mr. Martin S. Willard and Mr. Thos. F. Bagley are among the most active Masons in the matter of arranging for the show, and a STAR reporter was told yesterday by these gentlemen that the prospects were never brighter for a magnificent display of these highly prized flowers. It is expected that the usual concert feature of the show will be given, and the very best talent of the city interested.

AT FARMER'S TURNOUT.

A Large Crowd Present and a White Government Union Organized.

A gentleman who was at Farmer's Turnout, Brunswick county, yesterday, for a short time, informs the STAR that the Democratic meeting held there was largely attended. In the forenoon L. V. Grady, Esq., of Wilmington, addressed the crowd, which was composed of voters of all the parties. He spoke for nearly an hour and made a good speech.

In the afternoon Jno. D. Bellamy delivered a fine speech which made a splendid impression. A White Government Union was organized with 108 members, and the working element of the Democratic party in that section is beginning to get itself in shape for a victory this Fall.

GYMNASIUM OPENS TO-MORROW.

Classes to Meet at Y. M. C. A. On Every Thursday and Friday.

The Y. M. C. A. gymnasium will be opened for the Fall and Winter to-morrow night. Until further notice two classes will be held each week; on Tuesday at 6 o'clock P. M. and Friday at 8 P. M., the first class to meet, as before stated, on to-morrow night. Secretary Diggs told a STAR reporter yesterday that the leaders of the class have been at work for some time getting up new movements and arranging for the Winter. Of course the gymnasium will be free to all members of the association and the regular association suits will be worn, blue Jerseys, long gray pants and rubber-soled shoes.

Mayor's Court Yesterday.

Hugh McLaurin, who is at not all unkown to the police force, was before the City Court again yesterday charged with his usual offence, drunk and disorderly. The Mayor detailed an officer to escort him to the city limits with the advice that if he returned he would be sent to the roads for 30 days.

Geo. W. McMillan, arrested by Officers Wells and Gurganus, also had a hearing for being drunk and disorderly. He was let off with the costs.

Couldn't Go to St. Lewis.

The Second Regiment Band received a telegram yesterday asking that it leave here last night at 7.15 o'clock to go to St. Lewis, Edgecombe county. As the band had already decided to go to Burgaw Friday, President Monroe was obliged to wire in reply that the invitation to go to St. Lewis could not be accepted.

Lumberton Fair.

The annual Fair of the Robeson County Fair Association will be held at Lumberton, November 2nd, 3rd and 4th. All space for exhibits free.

INVESTORS DRIVEN AWAY.

Too Much Negro Rule in Wilmington for People Who Have Money to Invest.

The effect of negro rule in a community may be seen from the following, which is part of a letter written to a gentleman in Wilmington by Mr. G. Fred Ausland, of Cambridge, Md., one of a party of real estate men and capitalists who came to Wilmington on a prospecting tour:

"While in Wilmington we were very comfortably located. We spent part of Saturday, August 13th, at Ocean View, where the spectacle of a burly negro fighting a white policeman, and defying everybody, was witnessed by myself and Mr. Ortensten. Sunday, August 14th, we spent a very pleasant day at the Hanover Club, Carolina Beach, and I must say that we thought your white population charming and your city and surrounding country all that could be desired; but the power of the negro was more than we could stand. With a feeling of regret, nay of sorrow, I saw a fine country, with the greatest possibilities, ruined of its prospects, through the baneful influences of a race that few white men and no women can trust. You have negro police in your city, and we would absolutely refuse negro protection for our families. We saw thousands of acres of land lying waste, but I would not advise any of my clients to settle on them with the negro as a power in your State.

"We found the same deplorable condition in Weldon (colored postmaster, etc.,) Wilson, and all over the State."

RED HOT IN RICHMOND.

There White Men Are United and Determined—They Are Now Wearing Red Shirts.

[Raleigh Post, 5th.]

Mr. Maxcy L. John, of Richmond county, who was in the city yesterday, brought most encouraging news from his home.

He says that the Democrats will redeem the county, and that the Republicans are aware of the fact. "The people are terribly enthused," Mr. Johnson remarked, "more so than I ever knew. We are making big gains everywhere and will certainly carry the county."

"The white people are all getting together. In the lower section of the of the county nearly every white man you meet wears a red shirt. They have borrowed this idea from the South Carolinians and they are as earnest as you ever saw men.

"When I left Laurinburg there were 400 or 500 white men in town wearing red shirts. The white government unions are doing good in our section Nearly every member wears his red shirt."

TRYING TO BUY CROATANS.

Leaders of the Negro Party Hope to Buy Them at $1.00 per Head.

[Lumberton Robesonian.]

Dr. Norment, S. A. Edmund and Sheriff Hall spoke to the Croatans at Union Chapel last Friday night. The sinews of war were in evidence, we are told, and Hector Locklear left the meeting with $150 to $175 in his pocket. For the money Hector, our informant says, is to deliver 150 to 175 Croatan votes for the fusion ticket—or one vote for every dollar paid him. We do not believe that the Croatan voters of the county are so easily corrupted, and if their votes are purchaseable, which we doubt, they are worth more than a dollar each.

TOO MUCH COTTON.

Cotton is the principal staple of over one half of the Southern States. It is the money crop. It has been falling in price for a number of years but notwithstanding that the product has increased steadily, the crop of this year according to the estimates being the largest ever grown. As might be expected the price is down so low that there is very little, if any margin left over the average cost of production. The quotations in New York one day last week were the lowest reported in half a century. With a crop of 11,500,000 bales, as estimated, or a crop approximating that there is little prospect of material improvement in prices, although there may be some, for this will give two or three million bales more than the world demands at the past rate of consumption.

Planters will, of course, complain at the low prices, but under present conditions they had nothing else to expect when they persist in raising more cotton than the spindles of the world need. The mill men have been caught in pretty much the same predicament as the planters for with the steady and large increase of cotton mills there has been overproduction of manufactured goods, low prices and small if any profits to some, the result being that many mills in the East have been forced to suspend from time to time to avoid adding to the large surplus, or running at a loss. The mills in the South continued to run and to earn respectable dividends when some of the Northern mills could not run at all.

The Southern mills bear the same relation to the Northern mills that the cotton-growers of the Mississippi Delta and of Texas do to the other cotton growing sections of the South. The Southern mills can run and earn fair dividends when the Northern mills would be run at a loss, if run at all, because the Southern mills have such a decided advantage in the cost of production. So the planters in the Mississippi Delta and in Texas can grow cotton at a profit when the prices are low enough to bankrupt the average planter of other sections. On the rich inexhaustible lands of Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, where there is little, if any, need for commercial fertilizers, cotton can be grown for a little over half the cost in the less prolific sections. Thus the planter on the rich lands can afford to raise cotton and sell it at figures that would send the growers of other sections to the poor house. They may and they will continue to grow cotton regardless of what those in the less favored sections may do, and the result will be that the planters in the less favored sections will be compelled to turn their attention to something else in which there will be a better prospect for remuneration for their labor.

As the negroes have drifted from the border States Southward so will cotton growing move until it ceases to be an industry of any importance in some of the States where it is now extensively produced and forms one of the main dependencies. At the same proportionate rate of increase in production that there has been for some years past it will not be a matter of much time when the planters on the rich lands will have a monopoly of the business and the planters on the poor lands must retire from competition where the odds are hopelessly against them.

That has already been the case in what is called the fruit belt of Georgia, once a cotton region, but where now but few cotton blosoms are seen. The fruit growers make more money on one crop of fruit than they could on ten crops of cotton at present prices.

But all the States which find cotton an unprofitable crop may not be ideally adapted to fruit growing, and if they were and that industry were generally entered upon the demand would soon be so far exceeded that fruit growing would become as unprofitable as cotton growing. The fruit growers may make the very same blunder the cotton growers have made, plant too many acres and work themselves out of business.

There is one opening in which many may engage without danger of overdoing the business, that is cattle raising, to which we would add sheep raising if the too-many-dog nuisance were abated. There is no part of the South in which cattle cannot be profitably raised, and with the right kind of cattle very profitably. Not cattle which when grown are no larger or heavier than a year-old calf ought to be, but cattle large enough when fattened to compare with the beef of other sections.

We saw a statement the other day of a shipment of about 800 head of cattle from one of our northern middle counties to Virginia, where they are fattened and shipped to Northern markets. Large numbers of cattle are thus bought every year in our Western counties and shipped across the borders to buyers who have ranges for them and put them in good condition for the Northern markets. Every one of these cattle could be fattened in the counties where they are picked up by the buyers, who pay but a small price for them, just as well as they can be where they are shipped to, and then they would bring in to the sellers money worth talking about.

The upper tier of Southern States must eventually become grass and grain States, and cattle and other stock must be raised to make the most profit out of grass and grain. The sooner our farmers realize this the better it will be for them, and those who soonest realize it and act accordingly will be the ones who will profit most by it.

NEGROIZED LENOIR COUNTY.

Marion Butler, who is playing the role of snake in the grass, and giving the mongrel party all the aid he can, while pretending to be opposed to negro rule, says he has no fears of negro domination. It is not to be supposed that Marion is afraid of the thing he helped to put upon the State, and which he is now helping to fasten upon her, while hypocritically professing to be opposed to it. When Marion Butler makes light of negro domination it suits his convenience to overlook the counties in North Carolina where negro domination is practically an accomplished fact. The following, which we clip from the Kinston Free Press, briefly tells the story for Lenoir county:

"We have now in Lenoir county four negro magistrates, who have jurisdiction throughout the county, and a number of negro school committeemen, who have a voice in selecting white teachers and the right to inspect white schools, which right has been exercised in at least one instance in thif county in a school taught by a white lady.

"We have a jury box that seems to be crowded with negroes, though in pursuance of their new policy the commissioners seems to have avoided putting on the usual number for next court.

"We have the humiliating spectacle of negroes sitting around the court room to be called into the box as talismen and of seeing their expectations gratified.

"An examination of the insolvent list for last court shows that Charles F. Dunn drew as half fees twice the amount of any other magistrate in Lenoir county and that indicates that he is binding over twice as many persons to court as any other justice of the peace and putting twice as many in jail.

"This same Charles F. Dunn, has since he has been a magistrate, issued a civil warrant at the instance of a negro, one Pettiford, against as respectable a white lady as there is in Lenoir county and tried the case.

"Another instance of the exercise of his jurisdiction: One Faulkner was selling potatoes from his cart on the streets in Kinston, when some negro walked around and asked if his measure had been stamped by the standard keeper, which had not been done. Ignorant of the fact that the law had been changed making this failure a misdemeanor, this same Charles F. Dunn had Mr. Faulkner to appear before him and answer the charge of not having his measure examined and stamped.

"We have recently given an account of his issuing warrants against five white boys from the country at the instance of Levy Morgan, the negro constable.

"These are samples of what we have. Let us see what we have barely missed: (1) A negro postmaster for Kinston. It is well known that for a long time it was in doubt as to whether the negro would be appointed or the present incumbent retained. (2) Kinston, like many other Eastern towns, was redistricted and so arranged that we might have had four negro commissioners and one Democrat. In fact the purpose was to control the town government. By some means the Democrats have managed to defeat the plan. Last year two negroes were elected from one of the wards, but the Democrats managed to succeed in the other two. If this plan had succeeded Kinston would likely have had a negro policeman.

It is useless to say this would not have occurred for there are people living in Kinston to day who have seen two negro policemen in the town and seen them arrest white men. One of them, Sylvester Lawhorn, terminated his term by shooting on the streets a white man, Herman Bryan, well known to our older citizens.

This is not all, but enough for the present, and enough to put our white people to thinking.

Lenoir is one of the counties which considers herself lucky and congratulates herself on not being as badly negroized as some of her sister counties.

NEGRO RULE IN WARREN COUNTY.

Warren county is one of the counties which by the grace of the fusion Legislature enjoys the luxury of negro magistrates, constables, &c., who do business in their own peculiar way, as shown by the following, which we find in the Raleigh News and Observer:

On or about the 21st of September, 1898, Joe B. Somerville, a negro magistrate in Warren county, issued a warrant for the arrest of Peter Walker and Henry Jenkins for an assault upon one Bottoms. The warrant was placed by the negro magistrate in the hands of George Plummer, a negro constable, who deputized another negro, Matt Somerville, to assist in the arrest. They then, in company with the negro magistrate (Joe Somerville) who issued the warrant, went in search of Walker and Jenkins. They ran up on Walker and another man named Joe King (not Jenkins) and arrested them. They had no warrant for King, but they arrested him all the same and brought him and Walker to town. They tied Walker's hands behind him, although he had offered no resistance whatever to the arrest. When they got Walker and King to town they let King go, when they found out they had no right to arrest him."

There are white magistrates in Warren county, but the job of dealing with the two accused white men was put in the hands of a negro magistrate, who selected a negro constable to make the arrest, and that negro delegated another negro to help him and between them they arrested one man that was wanted and another man that wasn't wanted. Then they tied that white man's hands behind his back, although he offered no resistance, and drove him in before the negro magistrate. That was rough on the man charged with the offence for which he was arrested, but here the outrage was intensified by the arrest and humiliation of an innocent white man whose only redress for the outrage was to be turned loose when the negro magistrate found he was the wrong man. That's a sample of negro administration of justice, and not a lone sample either, for we have frequent illustrations of it, and will have them multiplied if the mongrel party wins at the next election.

FOXY BUTLER.

Marion Butler is now putting in his spare time travelling over the State and giving all the aid and comfort he can to the Holton-Thompson combine. He abuses the Democrats, but hasn't a word to say in condemnation of their opponents. If he refers to them at all it is to practically apologize for their misdoings and to charge, as he did in his speech at Dunn, Tuesday, the Democratic minority in the Legislature with responsibility for the worst legislation enacted. That's the way he is trying to help the crowd he is working for, by throwing dirt at the Democratic party, and doing his best on the sly to deceive the people.

Generally speaking U. S. Senators do not participate in State campaigns unless they are asked to do so by some one. Who has asked him? There are only two parties in the field, the Democratic and the mongrel party. He hasn't been invited by the Democrats, and if he hasn't been by the mongrels then he must be running a free lance, and taking this opportunity to stab the Democratic party while running his free lance. But it may be that he is thus trying to stop the rush to the Democratic party of disgusted Populists who are repudiating his trickery and treachery and the trickery and treachery of other Populist leaders who have been trying to lead them into the Republican camp. The people see through it now, understand Marion and his accomplices better than they did, and he and they are discovering that fact and are becoming alarmed at the prospect of losing their grip. Marion is a fraud.

DISGRUNTLED NEGROES.

A convention composed of 75 or 100 negroes of Rutherford county met in convention Saturday and nominated Martin V. Miller, colored, for register of deeds and William Logan, colored, for county commissioner. The Rutherford negroes are very much disgruntled and are fighting their white allies.—Statesville Landmark.

A CROOKED DEAL.

This is to let my friends in Union and surrounding counties know that I have severed my political affiliations with the Populist Republican Fusion Party. In 1892 I left the Democratic party because I honestly believed it had become corrupt and rotten as a party. But I now see that the organization of the Populist party was an underhanded cut by the Republican party at the Democratic party. I believe in a white man's party and in white supremacy, and to maintain good government and white supremacy in North Carolina, I feel it my duty to vote the Democratic ticket. —Stewart Spittle, of Union County, in Monroe Journal.

INCENDIARY UTTERANCES.

Geo. H. White, the Colored Congressman, Tells Colored Men to Go to the Polls With Guns.

[Raleigh Post.]

Geo. H. White, the negro Congressman of the Second district, made a speech in Northampton county a few days ago that completely discounts his rank utterances here at the Republican State convention.

A gentleman whose veracity and integrity cannot be questioned informs the Post that White counselled the negroes in his Northampton speech to get their guns and ammunition ready, and not to delay the matter. He told them not to wait until election day to do this, and to go to the polls armed and demand their rights.

A white gentleman had permitted White to speak on his land. As soon as the negro Congressman gave utterance to this incendiary language he ordered him off his premises. White was informed that he couldn't use such incendiary language on his premises.

White and his crowd of negroes then went to a school house, where he concluded his speech.

Three Doctors in Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin.

"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e., Theory) says is best to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Kinston Free Press: Rev. J. R. Taylor, a Free Will Baptist preacher, of Greene county, died Saturday of hemorrhagic fever. Mr. Taylor was only sick for a week. He was about 50 years old.

— Danbury Reporter: Last Saturday while out squirrel hunting Foy King discovered a snake in a pine tree thirty or forty feet from the ground. He shot it and found it to be a large rattler with eight rattles.

— Newton Enterprise: Our farmers are buying large quantities of clover seed to sow with their wheat this fall. Mr. George Sigmon took home with him last Saturday twelve bushels. The most approved plan with the best wheat farmers is to divide their wheat land in two equal parts. They sow one-half in wheat and clover one year and let it stand in clover the next. The other half they put in wheat and clover the next year. By this plan they improve their lands and get a good crop of wheat every year.

— Lincoln Journal: Considerable excitement was created Thursday just before noon by a party of horsemen galloping in from Maiden. It developed that they were in pursuit of I. F. Long, the agent at Maiden of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, who had skipped out with over $500 belonging to the company. Long was from Union county in this State, and had been in the employ of the Singer company for sometime. He was sent to the Maiden territory about six weeks ago. His method of swindling the company is this: He would sell machines for cash at a round discount and report them to the company as sold on time, sending in forged leases to cover. In this way he secured over $500, before the district manager suspected him.

— Raleigh Post: Mr. William Lynch, a respected white citizen of Warren county, was murdered Monday morning by William Hargrove, colored. Hargrove was employed by Mr. Lynch as a servant, and lived on the premises. Monday morning he was about two hours late in getting at his work. After breakfast had been cooked, Mr. Lynch walked from his house into the yard. Upon approaching the negro, he said: "Why are you so late to-day? Don't you think it is about time you were at work?" Mrs. Lynch was sitting at the breakfast table and heard he husband speak. A moment afterward she saw the negro run by the window of the dining room. Alarmed at this, Mrs. Lynch went on the porch to ascertain the commotion. Stretched out in the yard was the body of her husband, with his head cut open and his brains oozing out on the ground. The negro made his escape and has not been heard from. The good people of the community are terribly incensed. Mr. Lynch was brained with an axe by the brutal negro.

AMATEUR DETECTIVE WORK.

It Made One Man Dishonest and Let the Guilty Escape.

"Some years ago," said a Kensington manufacturer of cloth, "I found that my mill was being robbed; once or twice a month a piece of finished goods would disappear. As the thefts were all from the finishing room suspicion naturally pointed to the hands there, and after a long while of amateur detecting I felt pretty sure I had my man. Yet I had no evidence against him, nor could I, to save my soul, get hold of any. I just suspected him, you know. So one pay day I tested his honesty.

"On pay day, you must understand, each hand's money is given him in a sealed envelope, on which is written his time, his rate per hour and the amount due. Well, there was due this man $12, and in his envelope I put $22—$10 too much. As I had expected, he said nothing. So I discharged him. This man had worked for me eight years. Times were hard, and he lay idle for eight or nine months; then moved away with his family.

"Scarcely had he moved away when the thefts, which had ceased for nearly a year, began once more. Once more I turned detective, this time with better luck, for I caught the thief, and I traced every piece of cloth he had stolen. The man discharged was innocent save in the case of the $10."

One of the manufacturer's small audience spoke gravely: "Yes, you did a clever thing. You made a thief of an honest man. You placed in an honest man's way an almost unconquerable temptation when one considers the size of the salary you paid him. The man fell because you tripped him up. The Bible, I think, says something somewhere about such deeds, and you are promised your reward."—Philadelphia Record.

How to Prevent Croup.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always prevents the attack. It is a household necessity in this country and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined.—J. M. NICKLE, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa., For sale by R. R. BELLAMY. †

AN INCONVENIENT BIRD.

A Housewife's Experience With a Hungry Man and a Turkey.

In the days "before the war" a family of hard working people lived in a border county of Mississippi. Their home was situated upon the "big road" which led from Alabama northward into Mississippi. They did not keep a tavern, but they often fed the wayfarer.

One Saturday the housewife roasted a large turkey, baked a batch of bread and made a number of pies. She was ready for her Sunday dinner and expected to go to church the next day. The services were held a number of miles away.

After 3 o'clock that Saturday afternoon a single horseman appeared. He asked for his dinner and fed his horse in the ample stable of the farmer. The housekeeper was busy and the man in haste, so she set the turkey before him, thinking that he would not make much of an impression upon it.

The stranger sat down in front of the turkey and set to work. He cut into the breast of one side and ate it all. His appetite was only whetted. He demolished the wing and then cut off the leg. The drumstick disappeared and the upper joint was stripped. The woman stood aghast. She pattered out to the back porch, where her pies were cooling, and, selecting a tempting apple pie, set it before her guest. He put it to one side and turned the untouched side of the turkey toward him. He cut off the wing and the leg. The woman saw her Sunday dinner disappear before her eyes.

At length, having exposed all the bones of the large fowl, he attacked the pie and left not a crumb.

The woman sank in a chair near by. She was too much overcome for a moment to speak. Then she said:

"You seem to have enjoyed the turkey. There is not so much left as I expected."

She could say no more. She felt that words were inadequate to the occasion.

The man pushed back his chair, took out his quill toothpick, crossed his knees and sighed with satisfaction. Then he spoke:

"Well, madam," said he, "a turkey is a very inconvenient bird."

He fell to ruminating. His countenance expressed the benevolence which a good dinner is apt to produce in a man.

The woman waited for him to explain, but he was silent. Then she said:

"Why is the turkey inconvenient?"

"Well, madam, it is a little too much for one and not quite enough for two," replied her guest.

The woman fainted.—St. Louis Republic.

The Man to See.

"My husband insists upon riding a hobby," announced the anxious wife to the cross grained family physician. "What can we do about it?"

"Better consult a horse doctor."—Detroit Free Press.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at R. R. BELLAMY'S Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded. †

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, October 5.—The cotton market continues to show a moderate amount of recuperative energy, but lacks considerable volume as to speculation. The bear element found influences at the start to-day very much against them, the most important of which was an advance of ¼d in the price of spot cotton at Liverpool and exceptional activity on the part of Manchester springers. Among other factors were buying orders from abroad, reports that stiffening rates were being entertained by Southern spot cotton dealers, further rains in the northern portion of the cotton belt, and a marked drop in temperature in the Southwest. The smaller shorts became nervous and covered as far as practical on the opening

"CONTEMPTIBLE PIE HUNTERS."

This Is What Butler Called Those Who Favored Co-Operation in 1897.

Here is what Marion Butler said in his paper, the Caucasian, in February, 1897:

"The co-operation of the Populists and Republicans in this State has been a dismal and disastrous failure. Only the contemptible pie-hunters see any good in it."

If you do not believe Marion Butler's paper said this, ask him whether it did or not. He dare not deny it.

If "co-operation" had no "good in it" in 1897, is there "any good in it" in 1898, when Negro Domination is staring us in the face?

What Marion Butler said in the Caucasian in 1897, is exactly what every decent white man in North Carolina believes now.

MORE NEGRO SCOUNDRELISM.

Black Beasts Attempt to Outrage the Young Daughter of a Respectable Farmer.

HER FATHER SWEARS TO IT.

Attacked On the Public Highway in Brunswick County While Returning From Sunday School—Her Screams Saved Her From a Fate Worse Than Death.

Joseph Gore is an honest and respectable farmer of the county of Brunswick—poor in this world's goods, but esteemed by his neighbors. He has a wife and children, and there is a church and Sunday school near his home which are attended by his family. But he lives in a township where the negroes outnumber the whites more than three to one. This, coupled with the fact, no doubt, that Brunswick county is under Republican-Fusion rule, emboldened two beastly negroes to make an attempt to outrage a young girl on the public road as narrated in the following affidavit:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
County of Brunswick.

Personally appeared before me, Geo. H. Bellamy, a Justice of the Peace for Town Creek township, Brunswick county, Joseph Gore, who, being duly sworn, states: "Some days ago my daughter, aged 15 years, was returning from Sunday School, accompanied by her little brother, aged 12 years, about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. When about a quarter of a mile from home, two negro boys, aged about 16 to 18 years, ran after my daughter, with their coats turned over their heads to conceal their identity, and attempted to take hold of her, and doubtless would have placed their unholy hands on her person; and had it not been for her screams would have doubtless accomplished their purpose. This was done in Town Creek township, in broad daylight. The villains have not yet been detected.

Signed, "JOSEPH GORE."

Signed and sworn to before me this 19th day of September, A. D., 1898.
GEO. H. BELLAMY, J. P.

White men of Brunswick county, can you stand that? Is there one left in the borders of your county who will not now vote against every candidate who consorts with negroes, and who is dependent on them for election? Has it come to this, that your daughters cannot attend church or Sunday school without having a body-guard to protect them from the lustful black brutes who roam through your county?

Rise in your might, white men of Brunswick. Assert your manhood. Go to the polls and help stamp out the last vestige of Republican-Populist-Negro Fusion.

A HORRID SLANDER.

The Most Infamous That Ever Appeared in Print in This State.

The Alarmed Politicians are Trying to Break the Force of it by Resorting to Various Dodges, But They are Too Thin.

The infamous assault on the white women of this State which appeared on the 18th of August in the Daily Record, the negro paper published in this city, has aroused a storm of indignation from one end of the State to the other. We have received so many requests for copies of the STAR containing this article that we herewith reproduce it in full, the accuracy of which is certified to by Col. John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, and by a number of our well-known business men. The article is headed:

Mrs. Felton's Speech.

"A Mrs. Felton, from Georgia, makes a speech before the Agricultural Society at Tybee, Ga., in which she advocates lynching as an extreme measure. This woman makes a strong plea for wamanhood, and if the alleged crimes or rape were half so frequent as is oftimes reported, her plea would be worthy of consideration.

"Mrs. Felton, like many other so-called Christians, loses sight of the basic principle of the religion of Christ in her plea for one class of people as against another. If a missionary spirit is essential for the uplifting of the poor white girls, why is it? The The morals of the poor white people are on a par with their colored neighbors of like conditions, and if any one doubts the statement let him visit among them. The whole lump needs to be leavened by those who profess so much religion and showing them that the preservation of virtue is an essential for the life of any people.

"Mrs. Felton begins well for she admits that education will better protect the girls on the farm from the assaulter. This we admit and it should not be confined to the white any more than to the colored girls. The papers are filled often with reports of rapes of white women, and the subsequent lynching of the alleged rapists. The editors pour forth volleys of aspersions against all negroes because of the few who may be guilty. If the papers and speakers of the other race would condemn the commission of crime because it is crime and not try to make it appear that the negroes were the only criminals, they would find their strongest allies in the intelligent negroes themselves, and together the whites and blacks would root the evil out of both races.

"We suggest that the whites guard their women more closely, as Mrs. Felton says, thus giving no opportunity for the human fiend, be he white or black. You leave your goods out of doors and then complain because they are taken away. Poor white men are careless in the matter of protecting their women, especially on farms. They are careless of their conduct toward them and our experience among poor white people in the country teaches us that the women of that race are not any more particular in the matter of clandestine meetings with colored men, than are the white men with colored women. Meetings of this kind go on for some time until the woman's infatuation or the man's boldness, bring attention to them and the man is lynched for rape. Every negro lynched is called a 'big, burly, black brute,' when in fact many of those who have thus been dealt with had white men for their fathers, and were not only not 'black' and 'burly' but were sufficiently attractive for white girls of culture and refinement to fall in love with them as is well known to all."

"Mrs. Felton must begin at the fountain head if she wishes to purify the stream.

"Teach your men purity. Let virtue be something more than an excuse for them to intimidate and torture a helpless people. Tell your men that it is no worse for a black man to be intimate with a white woman, than for a white man to be intimate with a colored woman.

You set yourselves down as a lot of carping hypocrites; in fact you cry aloud for the virtue of your women while you seek to destroy the morality of ours. Don't think ever that your women will remain pure while you are debauching ours. You sow the seed—the harvest will come in due time."

THE AFFIDAVIT OF THE CLERK.

An effort has been made by some of the politicians to fool the people by representing that this slander was a Democratic trick or was garbled, but the following affidavit from the Clerk of the Superior Court settles the question as to its accuracy:

NORTH CAROLINA,
NEW HANOVER COUNTY.

I, John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, do hereby certify that the foregoing is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record, a paper published in the city of Wilmington, of date Aug. 18, 1898.

"I further certify that said paper has been published in said city at least eight months prior to this date; that Alex. L. Manly, the editor, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has before this held the office of Deputy Register of Deeds of New Hanover county, by appointment from Charles W. Norwood, Republican Register of Deeds, of New Hanover county.

"I further certify that John N. Goins, business manager; L. D. Manly, foreman; Jno. T. Howe, general traveling agent; and F. G. Manly, general manager, are all negroes, and are known as Republicans and the said Jno. T. Howe was a Republican Representative from New Hanover county in the Legislature of 1897. Witness my hand and seal this August 24th, 1898. JOHN D. TAYLOR,

Clerk Superior Court of New Hanover Co.

Who Manly Is.

As the Republican politicians in this county could not call this assault a Democratic trick, or say it was garbled, they tried to break the force of it by repudiating the paper as a party organ and characterizing the editor as a "simpleton" who represents no one but himself. The following affidavit from a number of business men of Wilmington testifies to the accuracy of the published slander, tells who Manly and his associates on the Record are and shows that Manly was not regarded as a simpleton, or a nobody before he startled the bosses by the publication of that awful article:

CITIZENS TESTIFY.

B. G. Worth, of the Worth Co.; R. W. Hicks, wholesale grocer; C. E. Borden, president of Navassa Guano Co.; W. L. DeRosset, commander of N. C. Division Confederate Veterans, and John C. Springer, of the firm of W. E. Springer & Co., each being duly sworn says that he has read the foregoing paper, and that the said is an accurate and true copy of an editorial in the Daily Record of the date August 18th, 1898; that said paper, the Daily Record, has been published in the city of Wilmington at least eight months prior to this date, and Alex. L. Manly, the editor thereof, is a negro, is well known as a Republican and has held the position of Deputy Register of Deeds in New Hanover county under the Republicans.

Affiants further say that John N. Goins, business manager, L. D. Manly, foreman, John T. Howe, general travelling agent, and F. G. Manly, general manager, are all negroes, and Republicans, and the said John T. Howe was a Republican Representative from New Hanover county in the Legislature of 1897.

Read Carefully what the Rev. Dr. C. S. Blackwell, Corresponding Secretary of the Baptist Young People's Union of the South, says:

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.,
Nov. 12, 1897.

H. E. Thompson, Providential, N. C.:

DEAR SIR:—A month ago you sent me a box of the Jackson Springs Water—twelve bottles. You know how fearfully I was suffering with an acute bladder trouble some weeks before. When I reached home I found the water awaiting me. I have rested and drank that water. I am a new man—my old self practically; my appetite restored; and the tenderness in the bladder has disappeared. I think it is a wonderful water. I had been using for weeks before all sorts of lithia water, but the Jackson Springs Water went to the spot.

With profound gratitude, I am,
Yours, Respectfully, &c.,
CALVIN S. BLACKWELL.

The Doctor further says, it is "the best, I think, God has let run out of the earth for afflicted humanity."

This Water is unsurpassed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Insomnia, Nervous Prostration, or any Kidney, Bladder or Stomach Trouble.

Packed for Shipping.

This valuable Water is packed for shipping purposes, one dozen half-gallon bottles to the case. It has permanently cured hundreds who have found it inconvenient to visit the Springs.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 6.

TRIENNIAL COUNCIL EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Opened With Impressive Ceremonies in Epiphany Church, Washington—A Large Attendance.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—With impressive ceremonies the Triennal Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States opened at 11 o'clock this morning in that old landmark of Episcopal worship at the National capital, Epiphany church. The sessions beginning to-day have a far-reaching interest and importance to the Episcopal organization of the country, and indeed to the church world at large, for aside from the distinguished personnel of the bishops, clergymen and laymen, the subjects which will engage the attention of the two governing bodies of the church have a present and vital interest to the church in general and to the Episcopal Church in particular.

A great concourse of people gathered for the opening service, far exceeding the capacity of the church. Conspicuous in the throng were the silver-haired, black-garbed bishops forming the House of Bishops, the chief governing body of the church. The actual participants in the council, including bishops, clergymen and laity was so great—some 500 or more—that but scant space remained for the congregation not officially connected with the proceedings.

Notable among the lay delegates were Chief Justice Fuller of the United States Supreme Court, of the delegation from Chicago; J. Pierpont Morgan, and Capt. A. I. Mahan representing New York, while the clergy was represented by many prominent in the church work of the country.

Promptly at 11 o'clock the strains of the great church organ and the mixed voices of the choir floated through the edifice, initiating the council with the imposing entrance of the bishops. They entered according to their length of service as bishop, walking in pairs to the chancel. The venerable Right Rev. Dr. J. Williams, of Connecticut, the patriarch of the body, was necessarily absent, by reason of his advanced age and infirmity, and so, too, was Bishop Clark, of Rhode Island. First in point of service came that white-haired pillar of the Episcopacy, Right Rev. Bishop Whipple, of Minnesota, somewhat bowed by his years of service in the church, but still vigorous in action and strong in intellect. To the white robes and wide black collar of his office were added the crimson academic hood, hanging like a cape down his back, and the purple cap of the senior presiding bishop. Following him came Bishop Wilmer of Alabama, Bishop Neely of Maine, Bishop Tuttle of Missouri, Bishop Whittle of Virginia, and the other heads of the church, the young and new members closing the procession.

Bishop Whipple conducted the service and in fervent tones led the opening prayer. Then followed the service of the Episcopal Church, Bishop Neely reading the epistle, Bishop Wilmer the gospel, and all the bishops uniting in repeating the creed. Rev. Dr. McKim, of Epiphany, made the announcement of Dr. Williams' absence and that Bishop Whipple would preside over the assemblage of bishops until a presiding officer was chosen. The business sesssion of both houses were announced to begin at 3:30 P. M.

Bishop Tuttle, of Missouri, then ascended the pulpit and delivered the sermon.

The actual business of the council began at 3:30 o'clock when the two houses met separately, the House of Deputies being open to the public. Rev. Morgan Dix, D. D., of New York City, was unanimously chosen presiding officer. Rev. Dr. Charles H. Hutchins, of Concord, Mass., was chosen secretary of the council.

A communication in Spanish was received from the Filipino delegates now in the city. A special committee was named to translate the document and lay it before the house.

It was determined to make a pilgrimage on the 15th inst. to Jamestown island, in James river, Virginia, where in 1607 the Episcopal Church was first founded in this country. A day will be spent in Richmond.

The House of Bishops organized by electing Bishop Doane, of Albany, as presiding officer, and re-electing Rev. Samuel Hart, D. D., of Hartford, as secretary. The bishops also accepted the invitation for a pilgrimage to Jamestown island on the 15th.

A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

Tobacco Warehouses and Other Buildings Burned—The Loss Over Half a Million Dollars.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 5.—A special from Clarksville, Tenn, says:

"One of the most destructive fires here in years occurred at 1:30 A. M. to-day, burning the Grange Tobacco Warehouse, the L. and N. depot, Gracey Storage warehouse and many tenement houses. The loss is over half a million dollars. It is believed to be the work of incendiaries. It started in the Grange warehouse, near the office. The Grange warehouse contained about 4,500 hogsheads of tobacco, and is a total loss. The loss on the tobacco alone in this warehouse is estimated at $450,000, with about $300,000 insurance.

INDIAN OUTBREAK IN MINNESOTA.

Fight Between a Detachment of U. S. Troops and a Band of Pillagers.

SOLDIERS WERE AMBUSHED.

Several Killed and a Number Wounded. A General Indian Rising Thought to be Imminent—War Department Orders Reinforcements.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, October 5.—Secretary Bliss received a telegram to-night from Indian Inspector Tinker announcing a fight with the Pillager Indians in Minnesota to-day. It did not say how many were killed. Marshal O'Conner wired Attorney General Griggs that a general Indian uprising was imminent. On receipt of these advices, Secretary Alger ordered reinforcements sent to the scene at once on a special train, if necessary and with a Gatling gun if needed.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., October 5.—A special to the Journal from Walker, Minn., says:

A terrible battle was fought at 11 o'clock this morning, thirty miles from Walker, at Bog-Ah-Me-Ge Skirk's Point, close to Bear Island. A detachment of 100 men, under General Bacon, was landed on the point shortly after 8 o'clock. The landing was effected with considerable difficulty, owing to a high sea. After landing a sortie of the bush was made in all directions. The soldiers went through the thick undergrowth very carefully and with every precaution taken against ambush. No Indians were seen until nearly 11 o'clock. The men were then ordered to line up in an open space near the shore of the lake.

Indians in Ambush.

Charges were drawn and preparations made for dinner. The order to make coffee had been given and the soldiers were standing in column formation when the first shot was fired. It came from Bog-Ah-Me-Ge Skirk's house. The ball struck Ed. Harris, ex-marshal of Walker, a half-breed. His arm was broken. That was the signal. Immediately the firing became general from all directions. It seemed that a shot came from every bush. Three of General Bacon's men dropped. They were at once carried to the rear. On the instant that the first shot was heard every man in the command sprang for cover, without waiting for orders. Like a flash the blue column had vanished, and not a sign was to be seen of the eighty men who had stood erect but an instant before, except here and there a little patch where a gray hat might be made out. I heard General Bacon's voice high above everything, admonishing his men. The General stood straight up and, supported by Major Wilkinson, looked right into the eyes of the red devils. "Steady, men!" he called. "Keep cool, now; keep cool!"

Again there came a volley from the Indians and that was what the troops had been waiting for. The Krag-Jorgensens opened with a frightful rattle just as the Pillagers made a terrific rush. Half a dozen of them dropped and the rest fell back, yelling like fiends incarnate. I don't know how many Indians there were, but there must have been 150 or 200. Lieutenant Morrison with a squad of twenty men made a rush to prevent the recapture of Old Mah-Quad, a very choice scoundrel and Bap-Dway-We-Dung. The marshals had these men under arrest and a rescue would have been effected, but Lieut. Morrison yelled "charge," and his squad scattered the copper colored gang.

Boats Fired Upon.

By this time the troops were under cover. The Indians were firing in a desultory way and the order was given to charge. The soldiers rose, ducking and dropping like grasshoppers. They made the most of their opportunity. Suddenly a volley was fired by the Indians at the steam tug Flora which lay off shore. A score of bullets tore through the frail wood work of the boat and every one except the pilot sought cover. Some blazed away in return with revolvers, but the range was too long.

A volley was then fired at the tug, Chief, of Duluth. Inspector Tinkin was shot through the leg and his coat sleeves were torn to ribbons by another ball. The Flora steamed for the enemy under orders from Marshal O'Connor, who was on board to join the twenty men under Lieutenant Humphrey, who had been left there. O'Connor escaped death by a miracle. The Indians fired a volley directly at him. Brill, the newspaper correspondent, and also Beaton, fought bravely with revolvers. They took desperate chances several times and came out safely.

Fighting Continues.

The fire of Krag Jorgansens, twenty miles distant is distinctly audible from this point. They have been banging away all the afternoon. A man just in tells me that we lose four killed and nine wounded, up to date. There was a mistake made to begin with in sending so few men. Had two companies been sent there would have been no fight. These red blackguards are numbers. Bacon's men have their blood up. The fighting Third has seen its dead. Bear Island as well as its dangerous vicinity will be gutted. A fatal mistake was made in failing to send a Gatling and a Hotchkiss. They could have been used with magnificent effect today, especially the Gatling. The Indians had fired twenty-five shots before the troops returned their fire. I believe that General Bacon will entrench himself to-night and await reinforcements. The wounded city marshal of Walker was brought home under a Red Cross flag aboard the Flora. He will recover, but his life is not worth a pinch of snuff, now, so long as there are any Bear Island Indians remaining in this country. They will certainly murder him.

All families are being removed from the agency at this time. I am going back to the Point immediately. The army department in St. Paul should be notified. General Bacon is beyond telegraphic communication and no boats can reach him for three hours.

4.10 P. M.—The firing seems to have ceased. Leave at once.

Cause of the Trouble.

The Pillager and other neighboring Indians of the White Earth Reservations claim to have many reasons for their present outbreak, although the direct trouble with the Pillagers comes over attempts to bring in some of the Indians into the United States Court at Duluth in connection with liquor selling cases. Their grievances go back through many years.

Reported Massacre.

ST. PAUL, MINN., October 5.—An unconfirmed rumor has reached here that the soldiers and General Bacon have been massacred by the Indians at Leech Lake. A Brainerd operator says this reported massacre is true.

DON'T LIKE THE NEGRO.

Northern and Western Residents of Jacksonville, Fla., Outraged at Appointment of a Negro Collector.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., October 5.—Considerable feeling is openly displayed here by the appointment of a negro to the important position of collector of internal revenue. The feeling is not confined to any particular class. The population of Jacksonville is made up largely of Northern and Western people. Many have influential connections all over the country, and a large per cent. of the property is owned by them; therefore, the sentiment cannot be attributable to a distinctive Southern prejudice regarding negro appointments to Federal offices. The community was specially loyal in support of the administration during the war; the local press defended it against yellow journalism and after the war demanded fair treatment for Alger. Surprise is expressed by men in all walks of life why a negro should be placed in such an important office when there are hundreds of white men who are loyal Republicans quite competent to conduct so important an office with credit to the administration.

Men here, influential in affairs and staunch Republicans, think that so far as the general effect in the South is concerned, that it is very inopportune to raise the question again.

SUNDAY'S STORM.

Connection With Georgia Coast Towns Still Cut Off—More Loss of Life Reported.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SAVANNAH, GA., October 5.—The Morning News' correspondent at Hinesville, the capital of Liberty county, says that an unconfirmed report has reached Riceboro, near there, that Saint Catharine island was swept by Sunday's storm and that Superintendent F. M. Wetherton and family were lost. The report, the correspondent says, is unconfirmed but fairly reliable. It reached Riceboro by a negro who claims to have been the only person on the island who escaped with his life. He climbed a tree and waited for the tide to recede.

Telegraph and telephone systems are still prostrated and connections with coast towns are still cut off. Information is only obtainable by messengers who can hardly pass the country roads.

McIntosh and Liberty counties sustained heavy damages but no estimate has yet been ventured.

One Hundred Deaths.

The Morning News correspondent at Brunswick wires this bare statement late to-night:

"Martin Anderson, master of the steamer Hesse, from Darien Ga., reports that eighty bodies have been found on Butler's Island. This runs up the total death to one hundred." Butler's Island was populated mostly by negroes.

SENATOR MATT QUAY'S CASE.

With Other Defendants Bound Over for Appearance at the Next Term of Court.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., October 5.—United States Senator Quay, his son, Richard R. Quay, and Chas. M. McKee, of Pittsburg, law partner of Lieutenant Governor Walter Lyons, appeared before a magistrate in the central station court in this city this afternoon to answer to a charge of conspiracy in the alleged misuse of public moneys in connection with John S. Hopkins, former cashier of the People's Bank, of this city, who committed suicide soon after the failure of the bank in March last. Ex-State Treasurer Haywood, for whom a warrant has been issued in connection with the conspiracy charge, was not in court, but it is promised that he will be here on Friday to answer his accuser.

After a hearing lasting three hours Senator Quay and his son and Mr. McKee were bound over for appearance at the next term of court. Bail was fixed at $5,000 in each case, David H. Lane, a local political leader, renewing the bond for that amount which he had entered when the accused men were given a preliminary hearing on Monday. The case now goes on the list for trial at the term of court beginning in November.

CUBA MILITARY COMMISSION.

American Commissioners Insist Upon Immediate Evacuation of the Island. Spaniards Declare It Impossible.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

HAVANA, October 4.—At the joint session this morning of the United States and Spanish military commissioners, the Spaniards, according to a report, declared it impossible to evacuate the island immediately, while the American commissioners insist that their instructions called for an immediate evacuation. After two hours' conference on the subject the joint commission were unable to reach any definite agreement.

The American commissioners, on their return to headquarters at the Throca hotel, were busily engaged in translating the stenographer's notes and in sending code messages to Washington.

The distribution of rations from the Comal, now at Matanzas, began yesterday.

Captain General Blanco to-day suspended the order issued several days ago to disband the provisional battalion reinforcing the regular troops. The reason for this step is not known.

LYNCHING IN MARYLAND.

Negro Ravisher Taken from Jail and Shot to Death by a Mob.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ANNAPOLIS, MD., October 5.—Wright Smith, colored, who on September 2d attempted an assault on Mrs. Morrison, the wife of Capt. James Morrison, of the Third district, residing near Jones station, was taken from jail shortly after 2 o'clock this morning and shot. The lynching party went to the jail, pointed guns at Night Watchman Duvall and took the prisoner to Sanders lot, near the city cemetery, and riddled the body with bullets.

THE PARIS PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

May Last Three Months or Be Terminated Abruptly at Any Moment.

RESTS WITH THE SPANIARDS.

If Their Position is Not Subject to Change on the Question of the Philippines the American Commissioners Will be Promptly Recalled.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, October 5.—It can be stated on authority that the various stories published relating to the work of the peace commission now in Paris, wherever they assume to indicate a failure of negotiations, a renewal of hostilities and the dispatch of a naval force to the Spanish coast are purely speculative. As a matter of fact, the commission has not progressed so far with its work as to warrant the attempt to draw a conclusion as to the outcome. It is not even possible to predict the length of the session with any accuracy. The proceedings may last one month or three. That will depend entirely upon the view taken by the American commissioners of the situation in Paris. If they are convinced that the negotiations are being conducted with sincerity on the part of the Spanish commission there will be no effort made to force them beyond reason. But if it should appear that the Spanish position is not subject to change; that it is irreconcilable with the American demands, and that the Spanish, knowing this, are simply prolonging the proceedings, our commissioners are likely to be promptly recalled; and this state of affairs may be found to exist at any moment, either within a week or three months, which seems to be the limit of time allowed in any calculation.

Dewey's Suggestions.

Very naturally, Admiral Dewey is one of the most trusted counsellors of the American commissioners. Such information as he has been able to collect has already been dispatched to the commissioners in mailed reports and in addition to this the authorities here have cabled certain extracts from the Admiral's observations which are believed to be of special importance just now. He has not directly suggested that the whole group be taken, nor that our claim be limited to Manila bay and the contiguous territory, but he has called attention to one very important consideration which has seemed to escape general observation up to this time and which has been laid before the American commissioners. That is, that with all the advantages in a commercial way possessed by Manila the place is indefencible unless Subig bay be also held by the United States. This particular bay is, on the whole, regarded as being superior from a strategic point of view, to Manila bay, and the Spanish government has evidently been of the same mind, for before the outbreak of hostilities it was about to embark upon an extensive scheme of defensive works at Subig bay.

Gen. Merritt's Views.

PARIS, October 5—The United States Peace Commission held its annual session to-day from 10 A. M. to 1 P. M. The commissioners continued the conference with Major General Merritt and practically concluded an extended canvass of the Philippine situation.

Nothing could be learned as to whether the general or Admiral Dewey had recommended the retention or the evacuation of the Philippine islands by the American forces. But it developed, that Admiral Dewey handed General Merritt a communication setting forth his judgment on the subject and that the general submitted this to the commission with reports from the American military officers at Manila touching on the conditions prevailing in the island.

General Merritt concluded with a declaration of his judgment in the matter, and it may be said that he arrived in Paris hoping the United States commission would press the possession of the Philippine archipelago.

It is also true that the disposition of the troops in the Philippine Islands, before General Merritt's departure, was such, and was so ordered, as to warrant the view that a lare or complete holding of the Philippine Islands by the United States was contemplated.

INVESTIGATING COMMISSION.

Gen. Wheeler Completed His Testimony and Was Followed by Gen. Boynton.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, October 5.—General Wheeler completed his testimony before the War Investigating Commission to-day, and was followed by Gen. H. V. Boynton, who was still on the stand when the day's session closed. General Wheeler's statement of today dealt entirely with the conditions at Camp Wikoff, and General Boynton's with those of Camp Thomas, where he is now in command.

General Wheeler's examination was on the line of the New York World's charges. He said if there were any "camp horrors" on August 27th, as charged, the commander of the camp was responsible, for he had full power to furnish relief. There probably were individual cases of suffering, but as a rule he knew the soldiers were well cared for. There was certainly no lack of food.

GEORGIA'S ELECTION.

Democratic Nominee for Governor Elected by Not Less Than 70,000 Majority.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ATLANTA, October 5.—Georgia voted to-day for a Governor, a full ticket of State House officers and for a constitutional amendment providing that judges and solicitors be elected by the people. Hon. Allen D. Candler, Democratic nominee for Governor, was elected over Hogan, Populist, by not less than 70,000 majority, this being more than double the Democratic majority for Governor two years ago. The constitutional amendment is adopted.

He counted out nine dollars then having put the bill in a sealed envelope gave it back to the clerk and said he would step out and get the other dollar. He never came back and the clerk finally opened the envelope and found it empty.

The man was arrested in Norfolk, and to day his wife came to Raleigh and began interceding in behalf of her husband. The flim-flammer should be brought here and punished to the full extent of the law.

HAD A NARROW ESCAPE.

Queen Victoria and the Empress of Germany in a Runaway Accident.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, October 5.—Queen Victoria, her daughter, the Empress Frederick of Germany, and the Princess Adolphe of Schaumburg Lippe, had a narrow escape while driving at Balmoral, Scotland, on Monday. The horses of Her Majesty's carriage bolted, the coachman lost control of them, and a serious accident was only averted by the horses turning into the woods, where the carriage stuck between the trees. The members of the royal party were severely shaken up and much alarmed, but otherwise they were not injured.

One Hundred Dollars that Bellamy will carry the county of Richmond.

One Hundred Dollars that Bellamy will carry the county of Robeson.

One Hundred Dollars that Bellamy will carry the county of Brunswick.

One Hundred Dollars that Bellamy will carry the county of New Hanover.

One Hundred Dollars that Bellamy will be elected.

All the above propositions to be accepted as a whole.

As Martin, the Fusion candidate for Congress in 1896, carried all of the nine counties in the Sixth District, except Anson—and lost that by only 110 majority—and had a majority in the District of 5,006, the above propositions should receive the favorable consideration of Republican investors.
